

CHATEAU DURFORT-VIVENS 2024

2nd GRAND CRU CLASSE IN 1855 - MARGAUX

- 2nd Grand Cru Classé in 1855 and rising star in Margaux
- The property has been in the hands of the Lurton family for two generations
- Vineyard of 65 ha located in the villages of Margaux, Cantenac and Soussans
- Château Durfort-Vivens becomes Margaux's first Grand Cru Classé to be doubly certified organic and biodynamic
- The largest amphorae cellar in the world

The 2024 vintage:

Ratings: Markus Del MONEGO 95 pts,
Yves BECK (Beckustator) 94 pts,
Alexandre MA 93-94 pts, Jane ANSON 93
pts, Colin Hay 93-95 pts, Antonio GALLONI
92-94 pts (Vinous), Falstaff 92 pts, Jancis
ROBINSON 16.5 pts

« The 2024 Durfort-Vivens is laced with dark blue/purplish fruit, lavender, licorice, spice and mocha. It offers gorgeous texture and fine balance. The pliant, creamy mid-palate is especially appealing. The 2024 is naturally still coming together, but it is a striking, beautifully rendered wine.» Antonio Galloni

Grape varieties: 94,5% Cabernet
Sauvignon, 5% Merlot, 0,5% Cabernet
Franc

